

ST. ANDREWS LUTHERAN CHURCH CENTENNIAL HYMN

We have found the one Messiah, come and see, come and see!

There's a world of gospel story, in a story often told
Of a miracle of mercy in a story very old
'Tis a story still unfolding on a road that always bends
And a choir of alleluias in a song that never ends.

We have found the one Messiah, come and see, come and see!

Generations keep on coming, some ahead and some to come
Horns and flutes and cellos humming, some beginning, never done
Praise once more oh spheres of music, break the still of death and pain
One more time, believers singing, sing the word, again, again.

We have found the one Messiah, come and see, come and see!

Ah the wonder of the music in the merriment of grace
Oh the beauty of the glowing in the hope upon each face
While on tiptoe we stay standing and believing come to see
What once was and what is present and then evermore will be.

We have found the one Messiah, come and see, come and see!

Oh you gates of old thanksgiving hear our praise and open wide
We are sheep of the Good Shepherd he is calling us inside
We will come into his presence, praising God with pipe and song
See the people, nations coming, God's disciples now a throng.

We have found the one Messiah, come and see, come and see!

Hurry, hurry, all come running, come and see, come and see
We have seen the one Messiah, glory be, glory be
We have found the one Messiah, Give God thanks, bless his name!
He has told us of our Jesus, why he came, why he came.

We have found the one Messiah, come and see, come and see!

Word and water, peace, the dove; cross of Christ upon the head
Take and eat, and drink, and love, break your bread 'till all are fed
By the power of the father, and the mercy of the son
And the fire of the Spirit, three in one, three in one.

We have found the one Messiah, come and see, come and see!
